

PTACC 2022 Deflection & Pre-Arrest Diversion Training Summit Scholarship Application

The Police, Treatment, and Community Collaborative (PTACC) will hold their 3rd Annual Training Summit August 2-5, 2022 in Chicago, Illinois, on the development and support of deflection and pre-arrest diversion (PAD) initiatives.

This event will bring together practitioners including first responders (law enforcement, fire, and EMS), and from the justice system, behavioral health, community advocacy, public policy, and research fields to provide training through a solutions action planning process on how to develop or enhance deflection or pre-arrest diversion programs that can help to reduce overdose deaths, link people with substance use or mental health disorders to treatment and services, and reduce the collateral consequences that can result from entering the justice system. Attendees will also benefit from the opportunity to meet and share knowledge with their peers from across the country.

With generous support from PTACC National Partners, the scholarship program will fund a limited number of teams. The PTACC scholarship will reimburse for the cost of four hotel nights and $500 a person towards travel expenses for up to four team members to attend the summit. Teams will be responsible for paying for their own registrations*.

Registration fees help to offset the costs of the conference, including meals, breaks, printed materials, and A/V expenses. Registration is $325 per person.

What are deflection and pre-arrest diversion?

Deflection and pre-arrest diversion are two sides of the same coin— they are complementary parts of a systems approach at the intersection of first responders, SUD and MHD treatment, recovery support, and community.

Deflection is the practice by which law enforcement or other first responders (i.e., fire and EMS) connect individuals to community-based treatment and/or services when arrest would not have been necessary or permitted, or in lieu of taking no action when issues of addiction, mental health, and/or other need are present. Deflection is performed without fear by the individual that if they do not “accept the deflection” they will subsequently be arrested.

Pre-arrest diversion is the practice by which law enforcement officers connect individuals who otherwise would have been eligible for criminal charges to community- based treatment and/or services in lieu of arrest, thereby diverting them from the justice system into the community. Some pre-arrest diversion programs have policies that mandate holding charges in abeyance until treatment or other requirements, such as restitution or community service, are completed, at which time the charges are dropped. Although pre-arrest diversion is facilitated by justice system stakeholders (usually police and sheriffs but sometimes prosecutors or a local government agency), clients are diverted to community-based services.
